

23/03/11

If you cannot view this newsletter, please go to www.bestrestaurants.com.au/newsletter

BEST RESTAURANTS NEWSLETTER

There's no denying the recent chill in the air, but while days of basking in the sunlight over long lunches are done for now, there remain plenty of ways to welcome the change in seasons at Australia's top restaurants. Best Restaurants has compiled all the greatest places to visit when the temperature starts to drop - regional eateries shine this time of year, with already a slew of autumnal dining specials and foodie festivals set to take place interstate over the coming months. Meanwhile, families are gearing up to celebrate with special dining offers for Easter in April and Mother's Day dining events in May.

Easter is the perfect excuse to indulge in fine chocolate, and we're already geared up with an impressive collection of indulgent Lindt bunnies. They're ready to giveaway to our lucky newsletter readers - see below for entry details.

RESTAURANTS SPECIALS

Go eggstatic at Shaw Vineyards Estate

Make a day of the 'Easter in the Vines' event before the free Easter egg hunt in the grounds of Shaw Vineyard Estate with a breakfast on the terrace before or a celebratory lunch afterwards. [\[more\]](#)