Sunday

EARLY

8AM CAR SHOW

The American Car Show, Pittwater Rugby Park, Warriewood; from 8am, adult $10, conc $5, under 16 $2, under 5 free, gold coin donation for exhibitors, 0407 186 430

As organiser Bob Radnidge says, "fill your eyes full of dreams, American machines" – and there will be plenty of that this morning. Cadillacs, Chryslers, Dodge, Mustangs and Studebakers will nuzzle noses with a couple of rare beasts.

★ 8AM DOGS' OUTING

Puppies In The Park Breakfast, Christison Park, Vacluse; 8am-11am, free, 9391 7901, www.woollahra.nsw.gov.au

Woof! You know who wants to get out of the house early, two-footer! About 500 dog lovers come to this biannual festival of all things dog. There are free refreshments, a doggy dash, prizes for best trick and best dressed, plus giveaways.

★ 9AM BEAUT UTES

Ute Club Show'n'Shine Car Show, Heathcote Hotel, cnr Princes Hwy and Veno St, Heathcote; 9am-3pm, free, 0417 301 121, heathcotehotel.com.au

Back in primary school, it was all about whether your family had a Ford or a Holden. Turns out nothing has changed: this weekend it's Holden street utes v Ford street utes. There's also a barbecue and live entertainment from 2pm.

9AM TRAM FESTIVAL

Sydney Vintage Tramway Festival, Sydney Tramway Museum, cnr Rawson Ave (Old Princes Hwy) and Pitt St, Loftus; 9am-5pm, adult $15, conc $10, child $8, family $46 (includes unlimited tram and bus rides and tours), 9542 3646, sydneytramwaymuseum.com.au

Sydney Tramway Museum celebrates the trams that serviced our streets half a century ago (yes, it's 50 years since they ripped up the tracks). Trams will run every half hour on the museum's 3km track, with a range of tramcars in use.

9.30AM FOODIE FEST

Tumbafest; Tumbarumba Creekscape, Lauder St, Tumbarumba; Saturday 10am-8pm, today 9.30am-6.30pm; adult $30 day pass, $50 weekend pass, 6948 3333, tumbafest.com.au
Tumbarumba, in the foothills of the Snowy Mountains, produces some of the best new wines and delicious fruits of the land – blueberries, raspberries, apples, beef and lamb – taste them all during a great weekend away.

10.30AM FAMILY ART

Sunday Family Fundays, Museum Of Contemporary Art, Circular Quay; 10.30am-noon, adult $15, child $10, family $40, bookings essential, 9245 2484

This special gallery tour is designed for children aged from five to 12, and their parents. Explore the works of Bardayal "Lofty" Nadjamerrek AO.

★ 10.30AM ARTISTIC VISIT

Meet The Artists At The Armory, Newington Armory, Sydney Olympic Park (meet guide at the Armory Wharf info booth); 10.30am-11.30am, free, 9714 7888, sydneyolympicpark.com.au

What inspires an artist to create a work? Why do they choose certain forms, colours and textures to portray or re-define an everyday object? Join a behind-the-scenes tour of the visual arts studios at Newington Armory. Wear a hat, walking shoes and bring bottled water.

LATE

★ 2PM FREE MOVIE

Cinewest Cinematheque, Newington Armory Theatre, Sydney Olympic Park; 2pm-4pm, 0402 707 010, cinewest.org

Cinewest continues its Masters Of Cinema series with German director Rainer Werner Fassbinder's unusual gangster film Love Is Colder Than Death. Bruno the gangster is sent after small-time pimp Franz who has refused to join the gang, but things get complicated when the pair become friends, even sharing a girlfriend. Eighteen years and over only.

2PM NETBALL ACTION

NSW Swifts v Melbourne Vixens, ANZ Championship Round 3, Sydney Olympic Park Sports Centre; game starts 2.20pm, adult $25, child $19, conc $19, family $69, 1300 798 550, ticketdirect.com.au

Swish, swoop, claw! There will be a swinging of netball skirts when the NSW Swifts take on the Melbourne Vixens. Can our girls hold off the Vixens new line-up? Arrive early for "netexpo" outside the sports centre.

4PM YOUNG CLASSICS

Sydney Camerata Gala Concert, Independent Theatre, 269 Miller St, North Sydney; 4pm, $25, conc $20, 9955 6455, theindependent.org.au

Wind up the weekend with the sweet sounds of the classical composers on strings. Sydney Camerata is a chamber orchestra comprising some of the best emerging classical musicians in Australia.

This afternoon they perform Bach's Double Concerto For Two Violins, Tchaikovsky's Serenade For Strings and many more.

5PM CLASSICAL CONCERT

Johann Strauss Ensemble, Joan Sutherland Performing Arts Centre, 597 High St, Penrith; 5pm, adult $75, conc $65, 4723 7600, jspac.com.au

The Joan has been off to a flying start this year, hosting six-piece Mongolian outfit Hanggai during the Sydney Festival, and now the world-renowned Johann Strauss Ensemble. The 22 musicians of this acclaimed orchestra will perform Strauss's most loved waltzes and polkas, including the beautiful Blue Danube.

6PM OUTDOOR PLAY

Shakespeare In The Vines, Romeo & Juliet, Shaw Vineyard Estate, Flint In The Vines, 34 Isabel Drive, Murrumbateman; gates open 4pm, play starts 6pm, adult $45, child $20, 6227 5144, flintinthevines.net.au

As the sun goes down, watch Essential Theatre transform the picturesque winery surrounds into the streets of Verona where cupid's arrow flies high. Yes, you've heard the story of those two star-crossed lovers before but themes of undying love, jealousy, fate, greed and power still resonate.

7PM SNOW AND SURF FILMS

Surf And Snow double bill, Starlight Cinema, North Sydney Oval, Miller St, North Sydney; gates open 7pm, live entertainment 7pm-7.45pm, screenings at 8pm and 9.15pm, adult $16, child $8, 9949 3137, starlightcinema.com.au

Tonight's double bill of surf and snow films features new release First Love, a chronicle of three teenage female surfers and their dream of becoming professionals (and they're Aussie!). That's It, That's All is an action sports film featuring Travis Rice and a dream-team snowboarding crew.
